

Cookie Award overview

The Cookie Award recognizes service unit cookie team members (e.g. cookie coordinators, booth coordinators, and rewards coordinators), cookie cupboard volunteers and volunteer regional managers who surpassed their position duties by increasing sales and/or providing extraordinary service to girls and/or volunteers.

Candidate criteria:

- Registered Girl Scout adult member in good standing.
- Notable work performance that went above and beyond the responsibilities of the position held during the cookie program.
- Provided outstanding service related to the success of the cookie program by increasing sales and/or providing excellent customer service to girls and/or volunteers.
- The candidate's role benefits multiple Girl Scouts San Diego girls and/or volunteers at a service unit, regional or council level.

Nomination process:

- Submit the Cookie Award nomination with two endorsements to Girl Scouts San Diego.
- Endorsements must be from two individuals or groups (other than the nominator), who are familiar with the service performed by the candidate.
- Nomination will be given to the recognitions task group for review.

Approval:

The recognitions task group reviews the nomination form and endorsements and approves or denies the award. The volunteer services team notifies the nominators of acceptance or denial and notifies candidates of acceptance.
